

Specifications List for Private Market Database RFQ

- Research platform that provides insights into capital markets with private and public data including companies, investors, funds, investments, exits and key persons
- Offers individual investments and transaction details (deal sizes, multiples, valuations) connected to their fund vehicles
- Tracks fund managers throughout their career with deal, fund and board seat attribution
- Focuses on the general partner-limited partner relationship with data such as commitments and fund returns, in addition to broader private market coverage, detailed data on transactions, companies, professionals and service providers, funds, transactions, companies, strategic acquirers, M&A transactions, and public companies
- Benchmarking based on actual and underlying investments that can measure and report fund performance using relevant criteria
- Capacity to benchmark a fund against other funds that engage in similar deals
- Capacity to create a peer group based on portfolio construction
- Global data coverage with dataset including, but not limited to, LPs, GPs, PE investors, VC deals, M&A deal coverage and public company coverage
- Dedicated client-service agent and platform research team available for model conversion, custom template building assistance, obtaining financials and providing contact information
- Granular coverage of transaction information including cap tables, pre-money valuations, deal multiples, and extensive transaction tagging according to industries, verticals, and deal types
- Offers fund level data like dry powder figures, fund returns, and fund teams
- Data visualization for aid in analysis of trends and valuations