

JULY '23

WRAPPED

VISIT THE EQUITY EVENTS WEBSITE

Hosting an event aimed at attracting diverse communities? Our website features a range of free events, city programs, and significant policy updates targeted at improving the lives of Black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC) New Yorkers. Visit www.NYC.Gov/EquityEvents today for New Yorkers across all boroughs.

EQUITY DEEP DIVE

On Tuesday, July 18, 2023, Commissioner Sideya Sherman from the NYC Mayor's Office of Equity participated and spoke at a deep dive event hosted by the esteemed Robin Hood foundation. Racial equality is an important component in the struggle against poverty.

The event focused on exploring actionable strategies to advance racial justice through equitable resource allocation in NYC. It was an inspiring gathering that aimed to create awareness and momentum for innovative equity practices across government. Click the play button to watch the event.

GUN VIOLENCE PREVENTION TASK FORCE BLUEPRINT

On Monday, July 31, 2023, Mayor Eric Adams released the 'Blueprint for Community Safety'. This approach along with the efforts of the New York City Gun Violence Prevention Task Force aims to create a broader sense of community in New York City's neighborhoods, boost safety, and prevent gun violence through equity-driven solutions.

Sign up to receive updates + events from the NYC Mayor's Office of Equity today: <https://on.nyc.gov/EquityNewsletter>